Adoration

"The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this Sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go meet Him in Adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our Adoration never cease." Catechism of the Catholic Church; 1380

What to do in Adoration?

1. Pray the Psalms or the Liturgy of the Hours. Whether you are praising, giving thanks, asking for forgiveness or seeking an answer, you'll find an appropriate psalm. The ancient prayer of the Church, called the Liturgy of the Hours, presents an excellent way to pray through the book of Psalms throughout the year.
2. Recite the "Jesus Prayer." Say "Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me a sinner," repeatedly as you quiet your heart and mind.

Please Pray For...

Pastor's Page

A Pastoral Perspective on Canonical Punishments:

As pastor, it is my duty to ensure that Christ's faithful are afforded a truthful, pastoral perspective on matters of faith and morality. Please take a moment to read the bulletin insert, which are the cliff notes of a recent article by Msgr. Pope in The National Catholic Register regarding the recent horrific abortion laws passed in New York.

Msgr. Pope's article, which reflects my own thoughts, is provided as food for thought.

No one—neither prelate, priest nor politician—is above the law. We know too well that silence in the face of scandal is itself scandalous and sinful. In fact, silence provides the necessary cover that allows evil to flourish.

But the Church—from the pope to the pews—can be silent no more!

Two truths must always remain in the forefront of our minds: We must always hate sin, and we must always love sinners. Failure to do so leads to moralism and being judgmental, which is to no one's benefit.

Rather, we must call sin what it is: Evil—even if it offends the offender, which is never our goal. But we remain free to speak the Truth in the face of what Pope Benedict Emeritus calls the “tyranny of relativism.”

At the same time we must love the sinner and constantly offer the call to repentance by means commensurate to the offense against God and neighbor.

Most often repentance and conversion is worked out privately in the confessional. But public sin demands public penance. Such is the “medicinal” nature of canonical penalties, which are never taken lightly.

No parent enjoys punishing her children. Neither does the Church. But the harm from empty gestures far outweighs the harm of punishment, which ultimately seeks the salvation of sinners called to repent.

God bless you as you, as does your pastor, prayerfully grapple with the troubles of our time.

REPORT SEXUAL ABUSE - An independent, toll-free number has been established by the Diocese of Camden to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the New Jersey Division of Child Protection & Permanency and Law Enforcement. For information or to inquire about counseling and support services, call 1-800-964-6588.
