Adoration

"The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this Sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go meet Him in Adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our Adoration never cease." Catechism of the Catholic Church; 1380

What to do in Adoration?

1. Pray the Psalms or the Liturgy of the Hours. Whether you are praising, giving thanks, asking for forgiveness or seeking an answer, you'll find an appropriate psalm. The ancient prayer of the Church, called the Liturgy of the Hours, presents an excellent way to pray through the book of Psalms throughout the year.
2. Recite the "Jesus Prayer." Say "Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me a sinner," repeatedly as you quiet your heart and mind.

"We must all embody the spirit of missionary discipleship & go out to the people, especially those on the fringes of our communities, & bring them back to Christ & His Church," Bishop Dennis Sullivan said in his welcoming message to the Convocation of Catholic Leaders last week. There is also an article in the 3/29/19 Catholic Star Herald. As opening day speaker, Julianne Stanz, said "We have to bring our story, our heart and our love of the church to others with joy." See Facebook and/or christthereedeemer.us for videos.

Pastor's Page

Both as a parish and as part of the Diocese of Camden, we have been praying for the Convocation of Catholic Leaders: The Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey. This is as significant an initiative in our diocese and parish as it is in the Church in the United States of America, for no other diocese has launched such an august missionary endeavor in its own locale.

But one might ask: “What is this thing called the convocation? What is this initiative? Why is the Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey so important?

We have likely heard other aspirational notions, which are equally as vague—even to clergy. Saint John Paul spoke often of the new evangelization and of a new springtime of Christianity. More recently, Pope Francis challenges all of us to live our faith as missionary disciples.

Essentially, we can sum up the convocation as follows: We need a NEW PENTECOST. Just think of how the world has been transformed by a few good men filled with the power of the Holy Spirit. That is what the Joy of the Gospel is all about. It is about allowing the Holy Spirit to fill and transform us into missionary disciples. It is about living our Christian faith in a way that matters—that is measurable in the tangible ways we make the world more Christian—and thus a better place.

A more Christian and better world does not mean a less human world. In fact, the opposite is true. The more Christian the world becomes; the more human the world becomes. As Saint John Paul often quoted from Vatican II: Jesus Christ fully reveals man to himself.

The convocation has ended, but the work has just begun. Far from a winding down, the convocation was a winding up. The CTR delegation will be continuing to animate our Christian faith and discipleship. Every parish ministry and group will be challenged to be renewed in its Christ-centered purpose, to articulate how it shares in the mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ, and how it leads others to take the next best step in spiritual growth.

To be clear: This mighty work begins with me as your pastor, aided by a few good men and women filled with the Holy Spirit. But all of us are called to do our share. Stay tuned.....

REPORT SEXUAL ABUSE - An independent, toll-free number has been established by the Diocese of Camden to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the New Jersey Division of Child Protection & Permanency and Law Enforcement. For information or to inquire about counseling and support services, call 1-800-964-6588.
