Adoration

"The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this Sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go meet Him in Adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our Adoration never cease." Catechism of the Catholic Church Paragraph 1380.

What to do in Adoration?

1. Pray the Psalms or the Liturgy of the Hours. Whether you are praising, giving thanks, asking for forgiveness or seeking an answer, you'll find an appropriate psalm. The ancient prayer of the Church, called the Liturgy of the Hours, presents an excellent way to pray through the book of Psalms throughout the year.
2. Recite the "Jesus Prayer." Say "Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me a sinner," repeatedly as you quiet your heart and mind.

Praying for the Dead is A Work of Mercy

November is the month that the Church honors all the Holy Souls in Purgatory and encourages us to pray for all the dead, especially our loved ones. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) paragraph 1030 states: "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation, but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven." This dogma was articulated at the Council of Florence in 1439 and Council of Trent in 1563 referring to purgatory as a "final purification of the elect" and "a cleansing fire" (cf. 1 Cor 3:15; 1 Pet 1:7 and CCC 1031).

The Holy Souls cannot do anything to further their own sanctification and salvation. They depend on us to obtain the grace needed to enter heaven. We can help them through almsgiving, obtaining indulgences, and doing works of penance on their behalf. We can also remember them in our daily prayers and visit them at the cemetery. Above all, we can have Masses offered for them, so that they may attain the beatific vision of God.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace!

Amen.
