Important Information

Emergency Care for the Sick

In case of emergency illness or accident, call the 24 hour emergency hotline as follows: (856) 753-4161. Call the parish office during regular hours to schedule non-emergency anointings.

The only way priests can know that a person is hospitalized is by family notification due to HIPPA laws.

To Become Catholic

Should you or someone you know be interested in learning more about becoming Catholic, please call the office at (856) 767-0719 for an appointment with Fr. Mann.

Marriage Prep

Need to make arrangements for your wedding? Please call the office at (856) 767-0719 for an appointment with Fr. Mann.

Welcome New Parishioners!

Please register at the parish office. Office hours: Monday through Wednesday, 8:30-4:30; Thursday & Friday, 10-4:30. Registration is the only way we can get to know you as a member of our parish. It is also important for testimonial letters regarding sponsorship for the Sacraments. Those who are 22 and have finished studies should register individually.

Care for the Homebound

If you know of a person who is homebound and would like to receive Communion and/or a visit from a priest, please call the parish office during regular hours at 856-767-0719.

Parish Religious Education

Religious education is a lifelong process

Baptisms: To have a child Baptized contact the parish office at (856) 767-0719.

Religious Education: To enroll a child in our sacramental prep programs, contact the RE office at (856) 767-3414.

Adult RE: Various opportunities for Adult Religious Education will be announced throughout the year.

Adoration

"The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this Sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go meet Him in Adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our Adoration never cease." Catechism of the Catholic Church Paragraph 1380.

What to do in Adoration?

1. Pray the Psalms or the Liturgy of the Hours. Whether you are praising, giving thanks, asking for forgiveness or seeking an answer, you'll find an appropriate psalm. The ancient prayer of the Church, called the Liturgy of the Hours, presents an excellent way to pray through the book of Psalms throughout the year.
2. Recite the "Jesus Prayer." Say "Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me a sinner," repeatedly as you quiet your heart and mind.

Praying for the Dead is A Work of Mercy

November is the month that the Church honors all the Holy Souls in Purgatory and encourages us to pray for all the dead, especially our loved ones. The Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC) paragraph 1030 states: "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation, but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven." This dogma was articulated at the Council of Florence in 1439 and Council of Trent in 1563 referring to purgatory as a "final purification of the elect" and "a cleansing fire" (cf. 1 Cor 3:15; 1 Pet 1:7 and CCC 1031).

The Holy Souls cannot do anything to further their own sanctification and salvation. They depend on us to obtain the grace needed to enter heaven. We can help them through almsgiving, obtaining indulgences, and doing works of penance on their behalf. We can also remember them in our daily prayers and visit them at the cemetery. Above all, we can have Masses offered for them, so that they may attain the beatific vision of God.

May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace!
Amen.

THOSE WHO SING WELL, PRAY TWICE!

St. Augustine

In some circles, much has been made of the liturgical principle—full, conscious, and active participation—prevalent in the “spirit” of Vatican II. This has resulted in a sort of liturgical “activism” that effectually missed the point of the manner of reform promoted by Vatican II. There has been an inadvertent shift from focusing on worshipping God to working to worship.

Two trends have emerged in the “working to worship” model. First, is an emphasis on one’s liturgical “job” (i.e. reader, cantor, extraordinary minister, usher, etc.). Indeed, it is good that such ministries are more widely open to suited parishioners. But by and large most parishioners worship as a congregant in the pew. In fact, that is the basic duty of every Catholic—to participate well from the pews.

Second, is liturgical “activism” can undermine the more contemplative movements of liturgical worship. For example, some measure the quality of worship by the amount of singing engaged in by the congregation. In right measure, congregational singing is an eminent form of true worship—as noted by St. Augustine. But sacred music also has the power to lift the souls of worshipers to transcendent heights. Some sacred music is more powerful when it is contemplated rather sung. Latin, for instance, can put us in touch with the heavenly realm precisely because it lifts us beyond our limited comprehension. The beauty of sacred music is a powerful, angelic language integral to the liturgy. It frees us from having to sing and disposes us receiving God’s grace, which is so pleasing to God.

It all comes down to the mistranslation of the Latin word, “actuoso.” It is rightly translated as “actual,” not “active.” In other words, the reform of Vatican II did not envision liturgical “activism.” Rather, Vatican II wanted congregants to “actually,” fully and consciously, participate in Divine worship. Of course, use of the vernacular language and other reforms have truly helped—to the point where now the need is to recover some of the more transcendent and contemplative aspects of Catholic worship. Indeed: We strive for a holy balance.

To this end, in the coming weeks we will be introducing NEW Mass parts called the Mass of the Roman Missal. These are the musical parts as contained in the Roman Missal used by priests at Mass. They are not new as such, but part of the beautiful heritage of Catholic sacred music.

Additionally, during the four weeks of Advent we will use the introit (i.e. entrance chant). This is in lieu of the entrance hymn. This helps to set the tone for the Mass. The expectation, at least at the outset, is to just enjoy it contemplatively. You can learn and join in at your own pace.
