Adoration

"The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this Sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go meet Him in Adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our Adoration never cease." Catechism of the Catholic Church; 1380

What to do in Adoration?

1. Pray the Psalms or the Liturgy of the Hours. Whether you are praising, giving thanks, asking for forgiveness or seeking an answer, you'll find an appropriate psalm. The ancient prayer of the Church, called the Liturgy of the Hours, presents an excellent way to pray through the book of Psalms throughout the year.
2. Recite the "Jesus Prayer." Say "Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me a sinner," repeatedly as you quiet your heart and mind.

Please Pray For...

What is the Advent Conspiracy?

Over a decade ago, a few pastors were lamenting how they'd come to the end of an Advent season exhausted and sensing they'd missed it – the awe-inducing mystery of the Incarnation.

Their parishioners were drowning in a sea of financial debt and struggled to find the connection between Christmas to-do lists and the story of Jesus' birth. The time of year when focusing on Christ should have been the easiest was often the hardest.

So, in 2006, three pastors decided to try something different. They called it the Advent Conspiracy movement, and came up with four tenets—Worship Fully, Spend Less, Give More, Love All—to guide themselves and their congregations through the Christmas season.

Worship Fully: Nearly every character in the Christmas story that encountered our King responded in the same way: worship. Let's make the conscious effort to reorient our hearts toward Christ.

Spend Less: In our hearts, we know mindless consumption is not the way to celebrate Jesus. But spending less does not mean spending nothing. Rather we will thoughtfully evaluate what companies and causes we support through our purchases.

Give More: The best gifts celebrate a relationship. They require our time and our energy. Relational giving means that we think about the other person—who they are and what they care about.

Love All: Christmas is a chance to move closer to those in crisis. We will love others as Jesus has loved us. The poor and hurting of our world can be reached by God through the way we choose to celebrate Christmas.

Advent Conspiracy is about the body of Christ at work in the world. As we worship fully, spend less, give more, and love all, something begins to happen that is greater than any single person. Together, we are telling the story of Jesus to the watching world.

My prayer is that you will join us to live out the story of Jesus' sacrificial love. God is not finished with our world and He is inviting us deeper into the Christmas story.
