Adoration

"The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this Sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go meet Him in Adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our Adoration never cease." Catechism of the Catholic Church; 1380

What to do in Adoration?

1. Pray the Psalms or the Liturgy of the Hours. Whether you are praising, giving thanks, asking for forgiveness or seeking an answer, you'll find an appropriate psalm. The ancient prayer of the Church, called the Liturgy of the Hours, presents an excellent way to pray through the book of Psalms throughout the year.
2. Recite the "Jesus Prayer." Say "Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me a sinner," repeatedly as you quiet your heart and mind.

Please Pray For...

A PERSONAL INVITATION

Dear Parishioners,

We're on a mission from God. Those of you who've ever seen "The Blues Brothers" will be familiar with the famous movie quotation. Of course, that is just a line in a comedy. But being on a mission from God is no joke. The mission of every parish can be simply summed up as follows: To make saints.

As a Franciscan Friar, I used to conduct parish missions roughly fifteen times each year. It was always wonderful to experience the many and varied parishes I was privileged to serve locally, nationally and internationally. Those who participate in the mission always find it a graced experience.

But there is one sad thing that comes to mind when I recall the many missions in which I have participated. Namely, 99% of the missions were grossly under attended. That means that a great opportunity for parish-wide, personal renewal and spiritual growth. With so many things in which to invest one's time—the endless reruns on TV, sports, one or another activity—it seems there's little interest in investing one's time in becoming a saint. Now as a pastor, I appreciate more fully the challenges parish priests face in their mission to make saints. On the one hand, there is the challenge to offer worthwhile spiritual activities. On the other hand, there is the challenge to rally participation.

As you have heard, our Advent parish mission is from 26-28 Nov. A Dominican Friar, Father Bill Garrott, O.P., is offering the mission. He is an outstanding musician and preacher. The mission begins after Mass at 6:30. We will gather at 7 pm. Rosary will be at 7:10. The talk will begin at 7:30.

I'm sure that there are many distractions vying for your attention. But my hope as pastor of Christ the Redeemer Parish is that our parish mission will be counted among the 1% of those with full participation. YOU can choose to be part of the 1%. The graces of a parish mission are only meaningful to the extent that they are incarnated in parishioners. YOU can choose to let the graces of the parish mission incarnate in YOU.

Please accept my personal invitation to be part of what I know will be a worthwhile use of your valuable time in preparation for Advent. Come and conspire with us at the parish mission. Connect more deeply to the Triune God—the Divine Hotspot!

Godspeed on YOUR journey to sainthood!

Fr. Mann
