Important Information

Emergency Care for the Sick

In case of emergency illness or accident, call the 24 hour emergency hotline as follows: (856) 753-4161. Call the parish office during regular hours to schedule non-emergency anointings.

The only way priests can know that a person is hospitalized is by family notification due to HIPPA laws.

To Become Catholic

Should you or someone you know be interested in learning more about becoming Catholic, please call the office at (856) 767-0719 for an appointment with Fr. Mann.

Marriage Prep

Need to make arrangements for your wedding? Please call the office at (856) 767-0719 for an appointment with Fr. Mann.

Welcome New Parishioners!

Please register at the parish office (office hours: Monday-Friday, 9-4:30.) Registration is the only way we can get to know you as a member of our parish. It is also important for testimonial letters regarding sponsorship for the Sacraments. Those who are 22 and have finished studies should register individually.

Care for the Homebound

If you know of a person who is homebound and would like to receive Communion and/or a visit from a priest, please call the parish office during regular hours at 856-767-0719.

Parish Religious Education

Religious education is a lifelong process

Baptisms: To have a child Baptized contact the parish office at (856)767-0719.

Religious Education: To enroll a child in our sacramental prep programs, contact the RE office at (856) 767-3414.

Adult RE: Various opportunities for Adult Religious Education will be announced throughout the year.

Adoration

"The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this Sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go meet Him in Adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our Adoration never cease." Catechism of the Catholic Church; 1380

What to do in Adoration?

1. Pray the Psalms or the Liturgy of the Hours. Whether you are praising, giving thanks, asking for forgiveness or seeking an answer, you'll find an appropriate psalm. The ancient prayer of the Church, called the Liturgy of the Hours, presents an excellent way to pray through the book of Psalms throughout the year.
2. Recite the "Jesus Prayer." Say "Lord Jesus Christ, have mercy on me a sinner," repeatedly as you quiet your heart and mind.

Please Pray For...

Cindy Feasler*, Brian Feasler, Rosemarie McCrane, Richard Fitzgerald, Gilda Passarella, George Fox, Finn Bicher*, Linda Sue VanName, Pat McIlvanie, Thomas DePalma, Belle Turner, Liz Concepcion, Lawrence Barth, Reed Costello*, Helen Condo*, Richard Rudley*, Louise Collins, Rob Giampetro, Rita Wasiurko, Veronica Hasselhan*, Madyson Johnson*, Rich Croft, Elvera McHale, Reed Costello*, Giuseppe Sainato & Zachary Megnin.

Please call the office (856) 767-0719 if you wish to add/renew a listing.

Please note that new additions will remain on the list 1 month. To request a perpetual addition (noted with a *) contact Father Mann.

To add a name to the parish prayer chain, email Kim Bekisz at: rumarmed@comcast.net

When all the world is rejoicing, why am I the only one in pain?

Christmas is supposed to be a time of joy, but for many people it brings only sadness and painful memories. A Stephen Minister can provide extra support and a listening ear during this sometimes challenging season. Call (856) 767-4386 to speak with a Stephen Minister or leave a private message.

Today is KOC Rosary Sunday.

We will pray the Rosary after the 9am Mass
St. Lucy Chapel, Assumption Church
All are welcome!

Slow down. Before you start buying and ordering gifts online, think about each person on your Christmas list. Think about your relationship and what significance it brings to your life. Are you thoughtfully spending or are you mindlessly rushing through the process?

"Spending less does not mean spending nothing. Rather, we strive to thoughtfully evaluate what we support with our spending, and allow our spending to support products, people and causes that are worthy of being supported."

Pastor's Page

A BIG SUCCESS!

This past week, our three parish choirs—children's, teens and adults—joined efforts to offer a beautiful Advent cantata. Quite literally, our parish sang our way into Advent.

It occurred to me that our choir, under the capable leadership of Rhonda Craig, and assisted by so many wonderful instrumentalists, represents nearly a hundred years of parish life. The youngest choir members are not even ten years old, and Marion Townsend is over ninety-four years old. The choir is therefore a microcosm of our larger parish family.

As pastor, I am so very delighted to be a “family friendly” parish. It should go without saying that we cherish all of our members be they in the womb; be they children, teens or young adults; be they parents or grandparents; or be they elderly—all the way to eternal life.

Yet, many experience the Church as a place that is lacking in welcome and hospitality. It reminds me of the Holy Family. Remember how there was no room for them in the inn?

This Advent into Christmas, take time to slow down and notice NEW people (or just those you've been too busy to notice before). A simple hello, a simple self-introduction may be all it takes to make those who infrequently visit our parish feel like this is their home—that we are welcoming and hospitable.

For what it is worth, we all hope our priests are welcoming and hospitable. I try to be. But that is not enough to draw people to our parish family. It is the welcoming and hospitality offered from the people in the pews that will persuade those who visit our parish to keep coming back.

Do YOU have room in your inn when Jesus visits?
