Stewardship Lived

"...I tell you, Peter, before the cock crows this day, you will deny three times that you know me." (LUKE 22:34)

We can't give what we don't have. Open your heart to receive God's love, mercy and forgiveness. Then, show the same to others through your Stewardship. As God's adopted sons and daughters, we are made in His image and likeness. As Pope Benedict XVI says, "we are made for greatness." Let our lives reflect His light to others. Pray to live a grateful and generous life. Strive for greatness! We are made for more! We are made for God!

Next month, we plan to learn more about these subjects and discuss some of the things that lead us to where we are today.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, May 4th at 7:00pm in the CTR Pastoral Center Conference Room. For information contact Megan Ward at: soulscapes1@yahoo.com.

Catholic Definition

Eucharist: The inexhaustible richness of this sacrament is expressed in the different names we give it. Each name evokes certain aspects of it. It is called: The Breaking of Bread, because Jesus used this rite, part of a Jewish meal when as master of the table He blessed and distributed the bread, above all at the Last Supper. It is by this action that His disciples will recognize Him after His Resurrection, and it is this expression that the first Christians will use to designate their Eucharistic assemblies; by doing so they signified that all who eat the one broken bread, Christ, enter into communion with Him and form but one body in Him. Divine Mercy Sunday

April 24th, 2022 at 3:00PM

Assumption Church

Adoration

Chaplet of Divine Mercy

Readings from the Diary of St. Faustina

Litany of Divine Mercy

Benediction

"On the Feast of my Mercy, all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to me...I am love and Mercy itself."
- Jesus to St. Faustina

Dear Parishioner,

Jesus is Risen from the dead! Alleluia! Easter is the celebration of Christian joy as we open our hearts and minds to the wonder of this ancient message that Jesus has returned from the dead and has open the gates of eternity to all of us who believe and place our faith in his promise of eternal life.

Celebrating this first Holy Week and Easter with you here at Christ the Redeemer as your pastor brings me double joy this Easter season. Witnessing and experiencing in so many ways the joys, challenges and hope of Christian faith with you this past year has been an honor and privilege. Though we have all endured a chapter of human history together colored by pandemic, war, and financial struggles, we emerge filled with joy and confidence, because the Risen Lord is present through the Holy Spirit, conducting the Father's will, to make all things new! The Resurrection of Jesus takes us beyond the Cross to the joy and hope that comes from our faith in the Risen Lord! It was Christ risen from the dead who allowed his disciples to fully know that God exists, that there is a future for every human being and that our cry for unending life is indeed answered in Him. He also commissioned Mary Magdalene after his resurrection as the "apostle to the apostles," to bring this good news of hope, the promise of new life to the world. He invites us like Mary to enter the tomb, to enter the mystery of how God transforms our experience of despair through a vigil of love into a promise of hope. This is the true message of Easter!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our wonderful parish staff ministers who work tirelessly to meet the needs of all in our parish family. I thank our wonderful Deacons who minister in many ways to serve us all in our needs. I thank all the parish ministers who give of themselves in various forms of ministry and outreach to help build the Kingdom here in our parish. I thank all the generous and dedicated families and individuals who contribute to the building of the Kingdom by living out their spiritual lives in authenticity and faithfulness. I pray the Lord will reward you all for your goodness with his gracious gift of redemption and Christian joy!

As we renew our promises of baptism throughout this Easter season, may we who profess faith in his Resurrection strive to bring Jesus' hope to all, particularly those who are poor and those who live in fear. Let us live in the Light Jesus shows us as we strive to love as he has shown us. I pray your celebration of this great feast is a time of grace and joy for you all!

A blessed Easter to you and all your loved ones. Alleluia! Jesus is Risen from the dead!

Fr. Wallace
