Third Sunday of Easter

Gloria

Gloria to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

1st Reading - Acts of the Apostles 2: 14, 22-33

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words. Jesus the Nazarene was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know. This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it. For David says of him: I saw the Lord ever before me, with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed. Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted; my flesh, too, will dwell in hope, because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption. You have made known to me the paths of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence.

"My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear."

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 16: 1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11

Lord, you will show us the path of life.

2nd Reading - 1 Peter 1: 17-21

Beloved:

If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb.

He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

Third Sunday of Easter

Gospel - Luke 24: 13-35

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?" They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?" And he replied to them, "What sort of things?" They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him.

But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see." And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures. As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over."

So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

Third Sunday of Easter

Stewards Listen

"Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the scriptures" Luke 24: 32

How often do you take the time to discern what Jesus is calling you to do with your life? Are your prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for you? If so, that's a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to each other and helping each other out. Take time, in silence, to listen to what Jesus is asking of you today.

Catholic Definition

Mystagogy - Liturgical catechesis aims to initiate people into the mystery of Christ (it is "mystagogy") by proceeding from the visible to the invisible, from the sign to the thing signified from the "sacraments" to the "mysteries." Such catechesis is to be presented by local and regional catechisms. This catechism, which aims to serve the whole Church in all the diversity of her rites and cultures, will present what is fundamental and common to the whole Church in the liturgy as mystery and as celebration, and then the seven sacraments and the sacramentals. St. Anthony's Women's Ministry Honor a Student

St. Anthony's Women's Ministry of Christ the Redeemer Parish is once again providing awards to 3 graduating seniors from any school in our area. The criteria for Honoring a Student is different this year. St. Anthony's Women's Ministry is asking parishioners to submit an essay nominating a graduating senior from our area. Your nomination should focus on one or more good works for the student you are nominating. The student is eligible if they volunteer at church, school, a hospital or senior center, as well as peer mediation or assisting in their neighborhood with chores. Do you know a graduating senior who fits these criteria? If you do, you may email your essay to Linda Richter at lindarichter03@yahoo.com or you can drop your essay off at the Parish Office. Your essay must include your name, address, and phone number along with the student's name, address and phone number. Essays must be submitted no later than May 7, 2023. If you have any questions, you can contact Linda at 609-254-9043.

Would you like to have a closer more intimate relationship with Jesus? Do you feel that you could spend more time in prayer? If you answered yes to either of these questions, or are just curious about Eucharistic Adoration, please come and spend some time with Jesus during the week. Adoration is held in St. Lucy's Chapel from 3:00 PM to 4:00 PM on Mondays through Thursday and beginning after the 8:00 AM mass on Fridays until 7:00 PM. Consider using the following meditation when you come to Adoration:

My Child, you need not know much in order to please Me; only love Me dearly. Speak to Me as you would talk to your Mother, if she had taken you in her arms. Have you no one to recommend to Me? Tell Me the names of your relations, of your friends; after each name add what you wish Me to do for them. Ask a great deal: I love generous hearts that forget themselves for others.

Thank You

The Saint Anthony's Women's Ministry of Christ the Redeemer Parish would like to thank everyone who helped make the beautiful Palm pieces. This Ministry would not have been able to accomplish this endeavor without your help. Also, thank you to everyone who purchased one (or more) of the Palm pieces.
