Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. AMEN

1st Reading – Acts of the Apostles 4: 32-35

The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great favor was accorded them all. There was no needy person among them, for those who owned property or houses would sell them, bring the proceeds of the sale, and put them at the feet of the apostles, and they were distributed to each according to need.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 118: 2-4, 13-15, 22-24 Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love is everlasting.

2nd Reading – 1 John 5: 1-6

Beloved:

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one that testifies, and the Spirit is truth.

2nd Sunday of Easter (Sunday of Divine Mercy)

Gospel Acclamation Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Gospel – John 20: 1-9

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

Nicene Creed (Profession of Faith)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God, from true God, begotten not made consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man" all bow.)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. AMEN

Stewards of Gifts

“The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own.”

Acts 4: 32

All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, you friends, your life, your talents and your money-these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely “Stewards” of the gifts God has blessed us with. We are called to be grateful and generous with all of our gifts for the benefits of others.

Catholic Definition

Peace

Respect for and development of human life require peace. Peace is not merely the absence of war, and it is not limited to maintaining a balance of powers between adversaries. Peace cannot be attained on earth without safeguarding the goods of persons, free communication among men, respect for the dignity of persons and peoples, and the assiduous practice of fraternity. Peace is “the tranquility of order.” Peace is the work of justice and the effect of charity.

The Pat Lawless Crudele Award

The St. Anthony's Women's Ministry of Christ the Redeemer Parish will be presenting two $1,000.00 awards to two deserving high school seniors who live their lives in the path of Christ. These awards are being presented in memory of Pat Lawless Crudele, a long-time parishioner of Christ the Redeemer.

If you know a graduating senior who has selflessly given their time, talent, and love in service to others, please write and share their story with St. Anthony's Women's Ministry. Your nominee can be anyone in your life.

To submit your story you can email the story as an attachment to Linda Richter at lindarichter03@yahoo.com, or place a printed copy in an envelope and put it in the collection basket (please mark the envelope to the attention of the St. Anthony's Women's Ministry). You may also mail a printed copy to Linda Richter. Linda's mailing address is 17 Mills Drive, Waterford, NJ 08089.

When you submit your story, please make sure to include your name, address, and phone number along with the student's name, address, and phone number.

The St. Anthony's Women's Ministry will notify you no later than the first week of June 2024 if your nominee has been selected to receive one of the two awards.

If you have any questions, you may text Linda Richter at 609-254-9043.
