Eden Stewardship

August 21, 2022

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship: Living

"For behold, some are last who will be first and some are first who will be last."

LUKE 13:30

Our cultural standards are different from God's standards. We often rank people by what they have, how powerful they are, or how successful they are. Jesus reminds us that God will not judge us by the same earthly standards. When God asks you: How have you lived Stewardship? What have you done with the gifts I have given you? How will you respond?

Catholic Definition

Hope: When God reveals Himself and calls him, man cannot fully respond to the divine love by his own powers. He must hope that God will give him the capacity to love Him in return and to act in conformity with the commandments of charity. Hope is the confident expectation of divine blessing and the beatific vision of God; it is also the fear of offending God's love and of incurring punishment. (CCC 2090)

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains: Your Choices Don't Stop with Cremation

While you have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead. When choosing cremation, there are many choices available including:

- Private Family Cremation Estates
- Granite or Glass Niches
- Ground Burial
- Addition to Family Lot or Crypt

Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org to learn more or call us at 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375) and a member of their staff will gladly assist you.
