FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Gloria

Gloria to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen

1st Reading - Isaiah 7: 10-14

The LORD spoke to Ahaz, saying: Ask for a sign from the LORD, your God; let it be deep as the netherworld, or high as the sky! But Ahaz answered, "I will not ask! I will not tempt the LORD!" Then Isaiah said: Listen, O house of David! Is it not enough for you to weary people, must you also weary my God? Therefore the Lord himself will give you this sign: the virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall name him Emmanuel.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 24: 1-2, 3-4, 5-6

Let the Lord enter; he is king of glory.

2nd Reading - Romans 1: 1-7

Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle and set apart for the gospel of God, which he promised previously through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, the gospel about his Son, descended from David according to the flesh, but established as Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness through resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord. Through him we have received the grace of apostleship, to bring about the obedience of faith, for the sake of his name, among all the Gentiles, among whom are you also, who are called to belong to Jesus Christ; to all the beloved of God in Rome, called to be holy. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel - 1: 18-24

This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. When his mother Mary was betrothed to Joseph, but before they lived together, she was found with child through the Holy Spirit. Joseph her husband, since he was a righteous man, yet unwilling to expose her to shame, decided to divorce her quietly. Such was his intention when, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary your wife into your home. For it is through the Holy Spirit that this child has been conceived in her. She will bear a son and you are to name him Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins." All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall name him Emmanuel, which means "God is with us." When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home.

Next Week's SCRIPTURE READINGS

The Nativity of the Lord - Christmas

First Reading: Isaiah 52: 7-10

Responsorial Psalm: 98: 1, 2-3, 3-4, 5-6

Second Reading: Hebrews 1: 1-6

Gospel: John 1: 1-18

Nicene Creed (Profession of Faith)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God, from true God, begotten not made consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man" all bow.)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. AMEN

Catholic Definition

Advent - When the Church celebrates the liturgy of Advent each year, she makes present this ancient expectancy of the Messiah, for by sharing in the long preparation for the Savior's first coming, the faithful renew their ardent desire for his second coming. By celebrating the precursor's birth and martyrdom, the Church unites herself to his desire: "He must increase, but I must decrease." (CCC 524)

Fourth Sunday of Advent

Model Stewardship

"When Joseph awoke, he did as the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took his wife into his home." MATTHEW 1:24

Putting our complete trust in the Lord without expecting anything in return. Striving to put God first in all things and follow Him wherever He may lead us. Joseph was a model of these pillars of our faith. As we prepare for the birth of our Lord, pray for the strength and courage to be a model of Stewardship, just as Joseph was.

CATHOLIC ENCOUNTER

WHO AM I TO JUDGE?
Responding to Relativism with Logic and Love

TUESDAY NIGHTS FROM JANUARY 3 TO FEBRUARY 7, 2023
AT 6:30PM IN THE PASTORAL CENTER, 7TH GRADE CLASSROOM

In this small group study program with video featuring Dr. Edward Sri (from Biblical Walkthrough of the Mass), we'll explore the classical view of morality. What is right and wrong? Is what's right for you right for me? Is there a right and wrong for everyone? We live in a society that supports the opinion that each person should make up his or her morality-that there is no moral truth that applies to everyone. How do we talk about morality in a relativistic world?

If you can't join us for every session, you can watch the video on Formed.org

RETROUVAILLE: REDISCOVER THE LOVE IN YOUR MARRIAGE

Tens of thousands of couples have healed their marriages through Retrouvaille (pronounced Retro-vy). If you know anyone who could benefit from this program, please pass this on. Couples learn to build communication skills and to increase intimacy. It provides help for marriage problems, difficulties or crises. The next program begins the weekend of February 10 - 12, 2023 at the Family Life Center in Malvern, PA.

Parish Giving is an easy way to provide your weekly contribution to Christ the Redeemer. It is not only simple to do, but also secure by using the strongest SSL encryption technology available. And it is convenient because you no longer need to search for your checkbook or make a stop at the ATM. You also have the added advantage of being able to print out a report detailing your contributions for the year. For more information, please see our Parish website: www.christtheredeemer.us.

Are You Being Called?

If helping others is part of your life...why not make it the rest of your life? Consider the Priesthood. The Young Adult Priesthood Discernment Group is an opportunity to meet with other young men (16-39 years old) considering the Priesthood. The group meets about once a month to discuss topics of discernment and to support one another in the discernment process. The next meeting is on Sunday, December 18th from 2:30 PM to 4:00 PM at Our Lady of Guadalupe Parish Office, 135 N. White Horse Pike, Lindenwold, NJ. For more information, please visit the Office of Vocations/Camdenpriest.org.

Christmas Tree Blessing

Holy Lord, we come with joy to celebrate the birth of your Son, who rescued us from the darkness of sin by making the cross a tree of life and light.

May this tree, arrayed in splendor, remind us of the life-giving cross of Christ, that we may always rejoice in the new life that shines in our hearts.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
AMEN

Advent Angels - The Shepherds

*"Angels filled the sky to sing of His birth."
Luke 2:11*

The most ordinary people in our nativity sets are the shepherds. They were just guys doing their job. Tradition has it that Shepherd's Field is 1/2 mile east of Bethlehem. David was shepherding there when he was called to kingship. His great-grandmother, Ruth, gleaned there when she returned with Naomi. The shepherds were tending their flocks when an angel appeared to announce the birth of the Messiah and Lord. Suddenly the sky was filled with angels singing praises. The shepherds responded in an outstanding way - they believed and acted; they glorified and praised; they spread the good news.

We should try to follow their example.

Advent Small Christian Communities

Tuesday – November 29th

The Annunciation - Dr. Ben Akers, associate professor of theology at the Augustine Institute Graduate School, leads us through a brief reflection on the scene of the Annunciation in Luke 1:26-38. He engages the scripture verses line by line highlighting some of the key Old Testament passages evoked by the angel Gabriel's words. The reflection concludes with some thoughts on how we can imitate Mary's "yes" to the Lord in our own life, especially in this time of suffering.

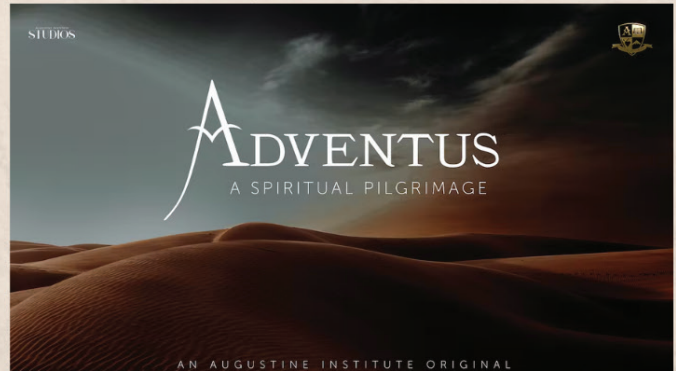

Tuesday – December 6th

Our Lady of Guadalupe The Miracle and the Message traces the history of this transformative event from the 16th century to the present. Featuring interviews with leading theologians, historians, and experts on the scientific inquiries into the miraculous image, this gripping film explores both the inexplicable mysteries behind the image, and the continued relevance of the Guadalupe apparition to the modern world. Narrated by Jim Caviezel.

Advent Small Christian Communities will be meeting at 7pm on the following Tuesday evenings in the 7th grade classroom of the Pastoral Center. All Are Welcome!

Tuesday – December 13th

Adventus: A Spiritual Pilgrimage - This special documentary allows Catholics all around the world to unite and make a spiritual pilgrimage to the Holy Land to see the places associated with Christ's Birth.

Tuesday – December 20th

The Nativity - The story of the birth of Jesus is often misunderstood. But this fast-paced, thought-provoking look at the true story of the Nativity clears away widespread misunderstandings of Jesus' origin. Join top scholars, inspirational speakers, and popular authors as they explain the story behind the story of the birth of Jesus. The Story of the Nativity also includes stunning works of art depicting the biblical story, from Fra Angelico to Rembrandt, and footage from the Holy Land showing the places where the Christmas story actually took place.

Dear Parishioner,

It's hard to believe that this is already my second Christmas among you! The more time I have serving as your pastor assures me of how fortunate I am to be among such wonderful, faithful and generous people. Our parish is a growing, vibrant and active parish. Our staff is dedicated to serving us all with their generous spiritual offerings in the various retreats, novenas, bible studies, continuing education, prayer gatherings and so many other outreaches. Our Young at Heart Club has been established and grows in numbers each week as it seeks to minister to our seniors' need to grow spiritually, intellectually, as they have fun and crafts. Our religious education program touches the lives of our young people inviting them and their families to live a much more spiritually aware and active family life. I could not be happier to work with such good, generous, hardworking and spiritually enlightened staff. May the Lord bless them for sharing so freely with us all their wonderful gifts and talents.

I am also grateful to all the members of our parish who minister to us all in a variety of ministries. Our Deacons, those at Mass, those serving on councils, those in the classroom, those in the kitchen, those in our social outreach to the poor, those tending our grounds and buildings, too many to thank individually, but you all know who you are, and so do we who appreciate you and your service. I want to thank all parishioners for your financial support this year. Even during a challenging financial climate for so many you continue to give generously to maintain our parish family. I pray you will be generous this Christmas season to help us catch up with past bills and put us on a more solid financial path. With Christmas falling on a Sunday this year, there will be two envelopes for the Christmas weekend. I am sorry that there are two envelopes, but we don't want to lose either the weekend collection or the Christmas collection for this most important weekend of December 24th and 25th.

As we celebrate Christmas, we are being reminded that all of us are called to welcome Christ in our lives. The message of peace, hope, joy and love on Christmas only becomes a reality when we ourselves try to make Christ alive in our hearts, in our families, in our community and world!

May Christ our Redeemer be with you and continue to bless you and all the members of your family. In all the Masses we have at our parish the core of my prayer is gratitude. Gratitude for so great a Savior, for a wonderful spiritual family here and for all the good gifts God has bestowed upon us all!

May the blessings of the Christ Child, and the intercession of Mary and Joseph, come to you and your families. May the New Year bring the world greater peace and harmony.

Christmas Blessings,

Father Joe Wallace
