Eden Stewardship

July 10th, 2022

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Love

"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'"

LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to live Stewardship by loving our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you do not like. All without expecting anything in return.

Catholic Definition

Divine Office: The Liturgy of the Hours, the public prayer of the Church which sanctifies the whole course of the day and night. Christ thus continues his priestly work through the prayer of his priestly people. (CCC 1174)

Thoughts from Father Joseph Perreault Fourth of July – 2022

As most know, in one of great ironies of the American journey, both Thomas Jefferson and John Adams, would die on the same day (July 4, 1826), the 50th Anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Less known is that James Monroe would pass 5 years later (July 4, 1831). Monroe, Ambassador to France, Secretary of State and fifth President of the United States, has often been described as the “last of the Founders”. He once observed the following - “Our country maybe be likened to a new house. We lack many things, but we possess the most precious of all... liberty.”

Coming together in prayer on this special weekend, it could be argued, I suppose, that our nation is no longer that “new house.” However, as with any house - new or old - it will only be as secure as its’ foundation... a foundation formed by a “sense of personal responsibility”, for liberty without responsibility will eventually lead to chaos and a loss of perspective.

And so as we sing our patriotic songs, march in our local parades, “ooh and ah” at the fireworks igniting in the sky over the nearby high school football field, we are also challenging ourselves to embrace, once again, the responsibility of liberty after 246 years. A juicy cheeseburger, a frosty Heineken, and the renewal of our commitment to the common good; one nation, under God might serve us well in the years ahead.
