Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.

1st Reading - Exodus 19: 2-6a

In those days, the Israelites came to the desert of Sinai and pitched camp. While Israel was encamped here in front of the mountain, Moses went up the mountain to God. Then the LORD called to him and said, "Thus shall you say to the house of Jacob; tell the Israelites: You have seen for yourselves how I treated the Egyptians and how I bore you up on eagle wings and brought you here to myself. Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine. You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation."

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 100: 1-2, 3, 5

We are his people: the sheep of his flock.

2nd Reading - Romans 5: 6-11

Brothers and sisters:

Christ, while we were still helpless, yet died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us. How much more then, since we are now justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath. Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. Not only that, but we also boast of God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel - Matthew 9:36-10:8

At the sight of the crowds, Jesus' heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness. The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus; Simon from Cana, and Judas Iscariot who betrayed him.

Jesus sent out these twelve after instructing them thus, "Do not go into pagan territory or enter a Samaritan town. Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give."

Rest in God's Peace

Nicene Creed (Profession of Faith)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God, from true God, begotten not made consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man" all bow.)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. AMEN

The Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Times Live Stewardship

"As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand'" Matthew 10:7

Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to "repent." Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants us to live Stewardship and to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second - invite the Lord into your heart

Catholic Trivia

From The Book the Great Catholic Trivia Challenge

Question: Which of the following athletes was not a practicing Catholic?

- A. Pele, Brazil's most famous soccer player
- B. Bobby Allison, NASCAR Hall of Famer
- C. Babe Ruth, legendary baseball player
- D. Jim Thorpe, one of the greatest athletes of all time
- E. Tim Tebow, NFL quarterback

Answer: E - Tim Tebow. Though not Catholic, Tebow is a devout Christian who created the now-famous "Tebowing" pose. "Tebowing" means getting down on one knee and praying, something the New York Jets quarterback is famous for doing before games.

South Jersey Catholic Cemeteries

South Jersey Catholic Cemeteries Grave Reuse for Cremated Remains

Grave reuse is an alternative option for owners of an existing burial privilege. Grave reuse allows for the addition of cremated remains to an existing grave, crypt, or niche. Not only does this keep a family together and respect the deceased's personal wishes, but it follows the Catholic teaching of interring cremains on sacred ground. Owners of a burial privilege can add burial rights for cremated remains depending on the type and location of the grave, crypt, or niche owned. A member of our staff can advise as to what would be available for the specific location and grave or crypt type.

To learn more visit www.southjerseycatholiccemeteries.org or call 800-594-4980 and a member of our staff will gladly help you.

Catholic Definition

Disciple - The disciple of Christ must not only keep the faith and live on it, but also profess it, confidently bear witness to it, and spread it: "All however must be prepared to confess Christ before men and to follow him along the way of the Cross, amidst the persecutions which the Church never lacks." Service of and witness to the faith are necessary for salvation: "So every one who acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven; but whoever denies me before men, I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven." The Wisdom of the Saints

"We must teach more by example than by word."

St. Mary MacKillop

Did You Ever Wonder...? Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA)

Our Faith is not simply a set of rules to help us through life. It unlocks the meaning to life itself, and has a depth to it that many Catholics might not understand. When we use words like God, Jesus, the Bible, or freedom, many people don't grasp them in their full meaning. Or worse, some misunderstand them, and wind up with a confused understanding of our Faith.

But when these deeper meanings are discovered we find that the truth, value, and wisdom of the Catholic Faith shows forth in a way that it never could before.

We will be getting together each week to look at some of these foundational concepts. If you are Catholic, thinking about the Catholic Faith, or just wondering if it makes any sense, you are invited to join us. We expect the sessions to last about 90 minutes.

Coffee and light snacks will be provided along with a free and open discussion. Any sincere questions or ideas will be respectfully entertained. We really hope you'll be surprised, challenged, and perhaps even delighted by what you hear.

All sessions will be on Wednesday nights and will start at 7PM, in the 7th Grade Classroom in the Pastoral Center.

Below are the topics that will be covered.

June 14: Introduction and discussion: "Does Life mean anything? Everything? Nothing?"

June 21: Faith and Reason... what do they mean, and do they conflict?

June 28 - Reality, Love, and Freedom

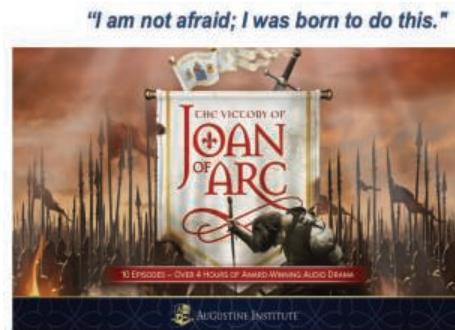

July 5 - What and Who is God? What about Jesus?

July 12 - What and Who is man? What does God want of us?

July 19 - How do we know what to believe?

July 26 - What is the Church? Why is the Church?

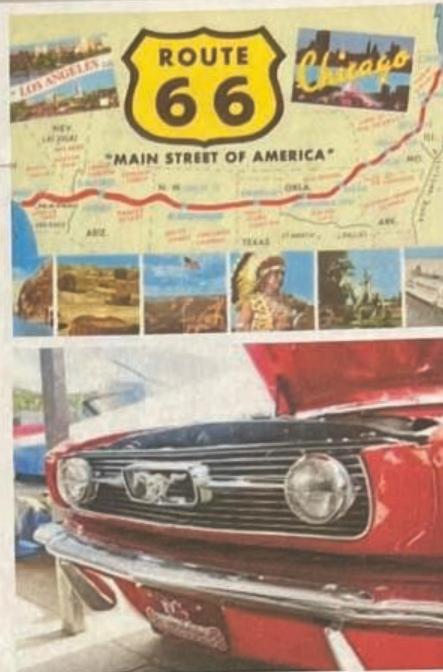

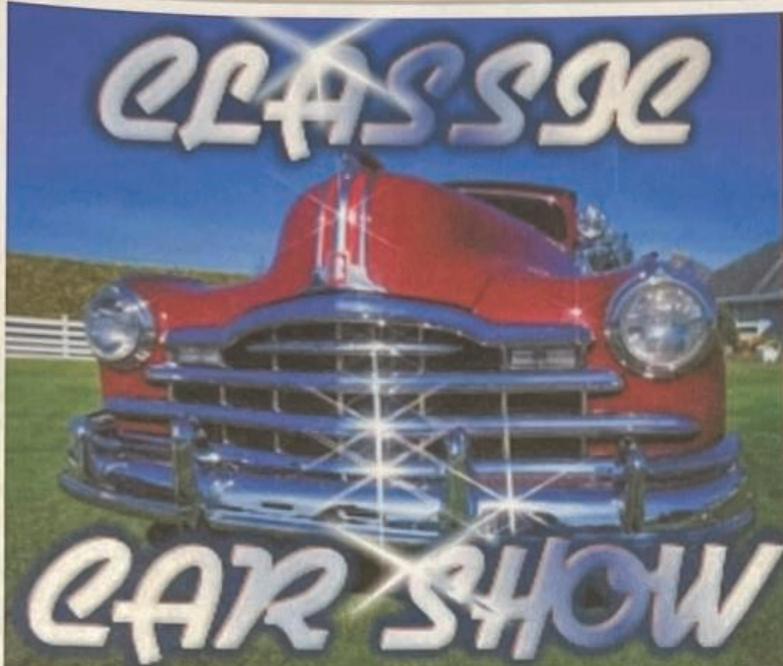

August 2 - Prayer: What is prayer, really, and why should we pray?

Declared a witch, she became a saint. A 17-year-old peasant girl enters the royal courts, claiming she's been sent by God to fulfill a mission: drive out the English enemies and place the true king of France on the throne.
