Fifth Sunday of Lent

1st Reading - Ezekiel 37: 12-14

Thus says the Lord GOD:

O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people! I will put my spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land; thus you shall know that I am the LORD. I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 130: 1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

2nd Reading - Romans 8: 8-11

Brothers and sisters:

Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you.

Gospel

John 9: 1, 6-9, 13-17, 34-38

The sisters of Lazarus sent word to Jesus, saying, "Master, the one you love is ill." When Jesus heard this he said, "This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that he was ill, he remained for two days in the place where he was. Then after this he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea." When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary sat at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise." Martha said, "I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." He became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Sir, come and see." And Jesus wept. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him." But some of them said, "Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?" So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it.

Gospel continued...

Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, "Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." And when he had said this, He cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, "Untie him and let him go." Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

Penitential Act

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brother and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (strike breast) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Nicene Creed (Profession of Faith)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God, from true God, begotten not made consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man" all bow.)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. AMEN

Eden Stewardship

March 19, 2023

5th Sunday of Lent

Grateful Stewardship

"Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?'"

John 11: 40

Many of us say that we believe in God. We attend Sunday Mass and participate in parish events. But when life gets hard and the pressure is on, when things aren't going our way, do we really believe? Do we put our trust in the Lord? When we live a life of gratitude, recognizing all that we have been given, we really live Stewardship by seeing that God is providing for our needs. Living a grateful and generous life allows us to see God's active presence in our daily lives and we become "partakers of the divine nature."

Catholic Definition

Redemption - The Paschal mystery of Christ's cross and Resurrection stands at the center of the Good News that the apostles, and the Church following them, are to proclaim to the world. God's saving plan was accomplished "once for all" by the redemptive death of his Son Jesus Christ. (CCC 571)

Adopt a Garden at Christ the Redeemer

With the many gardens sites located at Christ the Redeemer, we are looking for volunteers of the Parish to adopt a garden of their choice for the purpose of beautifying and caring for an area during the growing season. We will be preparing a map of all the available locations on the property and look forward to hearing from our avid gardeners. It's an opportunity for a family, our youth, and the senior citizens of our Parish to come out to care for an area of their own. Please feel free to contact the Parish Office at 856-767-0719 and leave a message for Chuck Hatch or email: maintenance@christtheredeemer.us.

St. Anthony's Women's Ministry Honor a Student

St. Anthony's Women's Ministry of Christ the Redeemer Parish is once again providing awards to 3 graduating seniors from any school in our area. The criteria for Honoring a Student is different this year. St. Anthony's Women's Ministry is asking parishioners to submit an essay nominating a graduating senior from our area. The goal is simple; grades and sports do not matter. The nominated student must live their life serving others. Your nomination should focus on one or more good works for the student you are nominating. The student is eligible if they volunteer at church, school, a hospital or senior center, as well as peer mediation or assisting in their neighborhood with chores. Do you know a graduating senior who fits these criteria? If you do, you may email your essay to Linda Richter at lindarichter03@yahoo.com or you can drop your essay off at the Parish Office. Your essay must include your name, address, and phone number along with the student's name, address and phone number. Essays must be submitted no later than May 7, 2023. If you have any questions, you can contact Linda at 609-254-9043.

Easter Food Basket Collection

Hams and Turkeys will be collected in the Parish Hall on Sunday, March 26th and Sunday, April 2nd. The Easter Food Baskets will be distributed on Tuesday, April 4th from 3:00 PM - 6:00 PM in the Parish Hall.

PLEASE NOTE: The Mercy Ministry is not collecting gift cards for the Easter Food Baskets. Donations of Hams, Turkeys and non-perishable food is the only items that will be accepted.

I Race 4 Vocations

On Sunday, April 30, 2023, join Bishop Dennis Sullivan along with priests, religious, seminarians and many people from throughout the Diocese of Camden at Cooper River Park (Jack Curtis Stadium | 5300 North Park Drive | Pennsauken) for the annual iRace4Vocations.

Bishop Sullivan will celebrate a Mass for Vocations at 1 p.m. followed by a 5K run/1 mile family walk. All are welcome to come out to pray and race or walk! The day will end with a picnic and family fun. Enjoy the activities of the day as we raise awareness and offer prayers for an increase in vocations for our diocese.

For more information and to register for the event, visit camdenpriest.org/irace4vocations.
