Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. AMEN

Easter Sunday

1st Reading – Acts of the Apostles 10: 34a, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said:

“You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 118: 1-2, 16-17, 22-23

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

2nd Reading – Colossians 3: 1-4

Brothers and sisters:

If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Easter Sunday

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia

Gospel – John 20: 1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him.” So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

Nicene Creed (Profession of Faith)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God, from true God, begotten not made consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(At the words that follow, up to and including “and became man” all bow.)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. AMEN

An Easter Message From Our Pastor

Dear Parishioner,

Christ is Risen! He is risen indeed! I greet you with the most ancient proclamation of faith and the most compelling cause of joy for all Christians throughout the world. What happened that first Easter morning was the beginning of the Church triumphant, when the first disciples found the empty tomb and eventually encountered the one who they knew to be dead and buried, as he appeared to them in his glorious, resurrected body. The first born from the dead!

The resurrection is one of the central teachings of the Christian faith. It was and is an action of God, that fully revealed the fullness of the revelation of the Most Holy Trinity as the Father raised the Son through the life-giving power of the Holy Spirit! All the saints of the Church proclaimed by the witness of their lives, the power of the resurrection reverberating throughout time. It is the source, sustenance, and ultimate destiny of the believing Christian. Without the resurrection, St. Paul tells us, our faith would be empty and misguided. It is the source and reason for joy in the face of all human challenges throughout our long history of belief, born that Easter morning! Let us allow the power of resurrection still flowing in the Church to be effective in all our lives.

Easter is a great opportunity to thank all those who serve us in bringing the message of the saving mysteries we have been celebrating, in this sacred time, a reality at Christ the Redeemer Parish. I thank on all our behalf our wonderful pastoral staff, Deacon Al, Deacon Joe, Deacon Nick, Rita Hanna, Laurie Power, Chuck Hatch, Angela Powers, Joanne Fitzgerald, Sharon Murphy, Kathleen Kownacki, Kathy Benton, Vince Brandolini, Kieran Murphy, and Harry Thompson. Our parish finance and parish councils, all our Liturgical ministers, and the many volunteers in our various ministries and fund-raising endeavors.

This time of year is also a wonderful opportunity to thank all of you, our faithful, generous, and loving parishioners! We thank you for all your generosity of time, talent, and treasure that you so freely contribute to the building of God's Kingdom here in our parish.

The resurrection gives a reason to return next Sunday and every Sunday of the year to worship again and keep holy the Christian sabbath and to reclaim Sunday as a day that belongs to the Risen Christ. Every Sunday is a little Easter, and the Church calls us to come and receive the Lord and the Eucharist every Sunday, until that day which we all await, the day of our empty tomb!

Happy and Blessed Easter!

Fr. Joseph D. Wallace
