Mark 10:15

Here at Christ the Redeemer we are blessed to have many parishioners who are willing to share their time, talent and treasure. However, we do need some additional help for the following:

Altar Servers Ministry

CTR is in need of Altar Servers. If you have a child who has received the sacrament of Holy Communion and maybe interested in becoming an Altar Server, please contact Deacon Joe at dcn.joe.janocha@christthereedeemer.us.

Sacristan Ministry

The Sacristan is the person who sets up the altar for the Priest before mass starts and puts away any items that may be left out after mass. If you are interested in this Ministry, please contact John Walsh at jwalsh528@hotmail.com.

Arts and Environment Ministry

CTR would like to expand our Arts and Environment Ministry. Do you have any artistic talent? Do you have any eye for detail? If you answered yes to either (or both) of these questions, please consider volunteering for this Ministry. Contact Deacon Joe at dcn.joe.janocha@christthereedeemer.us to volunteer.

Welcome Mass in honor of Bishop Williams

All parishioners are cordially invited to attend the Deanery 2 Welcome Mass in honor of Bishop Williams that will be held on Wednesday, October 9, 2024, at 6:30 PM at St. Andrew the Apostle, 27 Kresson-Gibbsboro Road, Gibbsboro, NJ 08026. A light reception for all attendees will follow the mass.

Together - Gathering of the People of God
An ecumenical prayer vigil

You are invited to a time of meditative prayer using songs and prayers from Taizé on Friday, October 11th, 2024, at 6:30 pm

Christ the Redeemer Parish, Assumption Church
318 Carl Hasselhan Drive, Atco, NJ 08004.

Wonderful News!

In the follow-up to the Ecumenical Prayer Vigil "Together" held on 30 September last year shortly before the opening of the first session of the 16th Synodal Assembly of Bishops in Rome, the Secretariat of the Synod in collaboration with the Dicastery for Promoting Christian Unity has asked Taizé Community to prepare an Ecumenical Evening Prayer for the Synod participants during the second session this October.

Pope Francis will participate in this prayer, which will take place on 11 October 2024 in Rome.

The Second Vatican Council opened on this date in 1962. The prayer will give thanks for the steps that have been made on the journey towards Christian unity since the time of the Council. The Synod participants include representatives from other Christian Churches and there will be also leaders of different denominations from Rome taking part. The ecumenical dimension is therefore very strong.

Last year, there were over 200 prayer vigils held throughout the world in communion with the "Together" vigil and one of them was in this parish on September 28th.

Would you please join this prayer gathering on October 11?

It would be a great gesture to join hands with Pope Francis and leaders of various Christian denominations to invoke the Holy Spirit on the work of the Synodal Assembly and surround this second session with prayer.

In different parts of the world, prayer vigils, small or large, in towns or villages, will be held on or around October 11 as a sign of communion with those gathered in Rome and to pray for the synodal process.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. AMEN

1st Reading – Genesis 2: 18-24

The LORD God said: "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him." So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; whatever the man called each of them would be its name. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of the air, and all wild animals; but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man.

So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The LORD God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man. When he brought her to the man, the man said: "This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman,' for out of 'her man' this one has been taken." That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 128: 1-2, 3, 4-5, 6

May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives

2nd Reading – Hebrews 2: 9-11

Brothers and sisters:

He "for a little while" was made "lower than the angels," that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting that he, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the leader to their salvation perfect through suffering. He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin. Therefore, he is not ashamed to call them "brothers."

Twenty Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time

Gospel Acclamation Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Gospel – Mark 10: 2-16

The Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate." In the house the disciples again questioned Jesus about this. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

And people were bringing children to him that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this he became indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them.

Nicene Creed (Profession of Faith)

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God, from true God, begotten not made consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

(At the words that follow, up to and including "and became man" all bow.)

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. AMEN

Catholic Definition

Marriage

“Inasmuch as it is a sacramental action of sanctification, the liturgical celebration of marriage...must be, per se, valid, worthy, and fruitful.” It is therefore appropriate for the bride and groom to prepare themselves for the celebration of their marriage by receiving the sacrament of penance.

Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Forever

“So out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them: and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name.”

Genesis 2: 19

The creation story reminds us of two important points. First, since the start, God has put the entire world into our care. Second, Stewardship has been around since the beginning of mankind, it isn't something recently invented by the Church. Just as past generations built our Church, it is now our responsibility to continue to nurture and develop these gifts for future generations.

First Friday Holy Hour with Vespers

Deacon Joe will be leading the next First Friday Holy Hour with Vespers on Friday, December 6, 2024, at 6:30 PM in the church. Please consider including this monthly activity in your prayer life.
