

1. What struck you from this week's video?
2. What was your reaction to the story about the father and son in the Armenian earthquake?
3. St. Augustine wrote: "God created us without us; but he did not will to save us without us." We can't save ourselves, but what role do we play in our salvation?
4. It is well known that St. John Paul II and Mother Teresa went to Confession weekly. Shouldn't holy people sin less and not need the sacrament as frequently? What does this tell us about the importance of Confession?
5. What would you say if someone asked if you've been saved?

Taking it Home

We can easily hurt the people we love, often times without realizing it. This week, give permission to your loved ones to tell you the ways in which they believe you have wronged them. Allow them to share without giving an argument or a defense and respond with a sincere apology. Observe and even write down the difference that this act of humility has on your family and friends.
